Three Teams Left In.

South—Carlton—Essendon.

By "Chatterer."

Speeding away all too quickly is this football season—the greater the interest the swifter seems the rate at which are closing down the year's operations.

* * *

Only two more matches remain, and then 1912 slides into history. It might have happened that to-day would see the close. But then it did not happen, and without caring tuppence which team wins the premiership flag, one may express himself as feeling glad that it did not happen, for we are all given the opportunity of seeing another of the battles to thrill and entertain beholders.

* * *

What I mean to convey is clear—Had South Melbourne beaten Essendon last Saturday and Carlton to-day, it would have been UP, and South would have won the premiership. But Essendon upset the South Melbourne apple-cart.

* * *

South Melbourne, having won the first round, according to the law in such case made and provided had two chances. Their first bite at the cherry was unpalatable. They have the other next Saturday, when they will meet the winner of to-day's battle.

* * *

Essendon barrackers predict that if it is South who have to meet them next week the flag will float over the East Melbourne Cricket Ground next season, and so will add to the decorative appearance of the landscape at Jolimont, from which football has done such a tremendous amount of good—a condition of things which many of the cricketing people are apt to overlook or pretend to forget altogether. But that is another story.

* * *

On the other hand, Carltonians contend most confidently that they are going to whip the 'Dons this afternoon, and that they will smite South Melbourne hip and thigh next week, so that Messrs. T. F. Cooke, E. P. Kennedy, G. Bruce, Ernie Walton, M. Hearne, John Gardiner, Jack Wells, Billy Dick, the Wee McGregor, Norman Clark will be able to gaze proudly on the fluttering flag flinging to the breeze the information—"V.F.L. Premiers, 1912."

South's stock of bunting, notwithstanding the confident expressions of the other two teams in the running.

* * *

And talking of confidence. I met Frank Reid, the Essendon secretary, on Saturday night. He was beaming, as were Ald. Crichton, Messrs. Bill Fleming, J. Denham, Hughie Johns, Allan Belcher, Busbridge, and the host of others who have done so much for the same old Essendon. They were pleased beyond measure at seeing them play in the same old way, especially as of late they have been a disappointing side, and one which many say were lucky to have got into the second round.

* * *

Luck or no luck, there they are. And a tough proposition they have again proved themselves.

* * *

There were 34,160 people who either did not give a hang to the price of meat or left home to forget it. And they went to the Essendon-South semi-final, at which £1261 was taken at the gates. This, too, on a day of rain and wind and the consequent discomfort of such conditions. Dearly beloved, may we not reason from these figures and facts that the game has a strong grip on the nation? Aye, verily we may, and rightly so, too, for in truth it is a noble game, "serving," as Alfred Deakin said, when he was Prime Minister, "to make men all the better for and more valuable to the nation."

* * *

Taking the figures of the two semi-finals, there were in all 74,293 persons who witnessed the play, and the gate receipts amounted to £2801/6/-.

* * *

When one considers that 34,000 people braved the discomforts of a cold, bleak, rainy afternoon, it is reasonable to infer that, had the day been fine, the attendance on Saturday would have been nearer 50,000 than 40,000.

* * *

The game was hard fought and fairly contested. It was not carried out on ping-pong principles. There was too much at stake for that, but the onlookers were satisfied at having seen an interesting display, notwithstanding the adverse weather conditions.

* * *

Those who came prepared to see South whip Essendon out of hand, owing to the recollection of the 'Don's poor performances in the latter part of the home and home matches section of the programme, were greatly astonished. They went away with the verdict—"The best team won."

* * *

There were rumours on Friday that there was a certain amount of unpleasantness among two or three of the South Melbournites, but very little heed was paid to them. Certainly it did not seem on Saturday as if the rumours had any foundation in fact. Some commented on the absence of Ricketts, but his brother informed me that the captain could not play owing to a leg injury.

* * *

The player I was sorry for was Len. Mortimer. He looked lost in South's dressing room, and while the others were being rubbed down he stood looking on, pulling reflectively at his pipe. Mortimer's leg has caused him a deal of trouble, but I think it was not felt so severely as was the fact of not being able to take the field.

* * *

* * *

One of the most brilliant marks of the season was scored by Kirby in the third quarter on Saturday. Se-wart drove the ball down the centre, and Kirby flung out his right arm and just touched the ball. He gathered it in with the right hand in a most extraordinary fashion, the ball seeming to stick as if it were coated with birdlime. It is just possible that the Essendonian was as surprised as anybody to find that he held it, but all the same he did so, and was stormed with cheers from all around the ground.

* * *

Considering the heavy going, the pace was fast on Saturday, Essendon being if anything quicker than the enemy.

* * *

The Baring-Belcher-Cameron combination of ruck men proved the superior trio, as opposed to Milne, Charge and Russick. Belcher left most of the hitting out to be done by Baring, while he attended to the shepherding. And Baring was equal to the job, which he carried out well. Milne improved in the later stages, and was in magnificent form.

* * *

Essendon were always the first to break away at the starting of each quarter, bar one. They also led in the scores at the close of every term.

* * *

There were no two opinions up to half-time concerning the merits of the play. Essendon had shown much the better form. They were calmer and more deliberate in their actions, and showed better and more effective system than did South Melbourne. Indeed, at the interval, although only 10 points separated the scores, Essendon looked certain winners. The third quarter was about South's best. They came away with a rattle, forced the fighting, and for the first time deposed Essendon from the lead. They did not maintain it long, and the 'Dons raced to the front, remaining there until the call of time, when the scores were—Essendon, 7.12; South Melbourne, 6.6.

* * *

The Belcher Brothers—Allan (Essendon) and Vic. (South Melbourne)—captained the respective sides in the semi-final on Saturday. The Essendonian was the more successful.

* * *

L. Armstrong was played full back in goal against South. The first sixer scored against Essendon was due to his having left the sticks unprotected. Carpenter whipped the ball through smartly.

The "Record" scored heavily again on Saturday with the correct numbers of players. Les. White (Essendon) is registered as 19. He played the first half with that number on his back, but came out after the interval with Harvey's number, 26, on. That should not have been permitted, seeing that the proprietor of the "Record" had provided two sets of numbers for each player in the event of their jerseys being wet through in rainy weather such as that of Saturday. The desire of the "Record" is to keep faith with readers and advertisers. Hence the reference to the change after play had started.

Chalmers, Sewart and O'Shea contributed the Essendon centre line against Prince, Bower, Tandy, and for a while Caldwell. Sewart beat Bower, and Chalmers was up against Prince most of the day. The little fellows had many interesting tussles, and Chalmers finished a day of great work with a sprint that left Prince in the rear in the final quarter. Prince was lame afterwards. Tandy and Prince were opposed to O'Shea at different stages, and, taking the game throughout, held their own.

* * *

Saltau's work back in the early stages of the game was of value to South Melbourne, but Grimshaw and Thomas were also a conspicuous pair all day. Scobie, however, was South's star defender.

* * *

The reappearance of Ogden was a shoring up of the Essendon half-forward line. Ogden was in rare form, and some of his dashes were remarkably fine. Caine and Shea also put in smart play on that line, but Caine has not the pace he once possessed.

* * *

Taken right through, Essendon was a fine, even side. The work of White, Bowe, O'Brien, Kirby and Kirkwood was excellent all day.

The BEST and only the BEST !

WHAT CHAMPIONS REQUIRE.

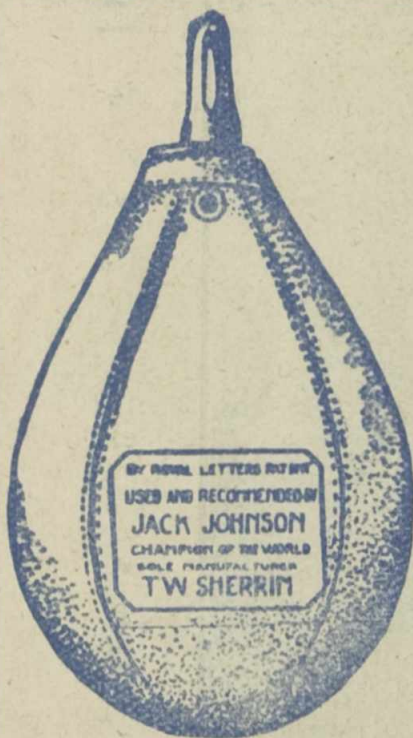

It is only natural that for the great and glorious Australian game the best of Australian goods should be manufactured by the best Australian maker.

T.W. SHERRIN

Acknowledged by all sporting institutions and champions,

BOXING, CRICKET, and FOOTBALL,

as the leading manufacturer of Australia. Testimonials as to the superiority of his sporting goods have been unhesitatingly given by the world's champions who have visited Australia from time to time during the last twenty years.

JACK JOHNSON, the world's champion pugilist, pronounces Sherrin's boxing gloves and punching balls better than any he has used in England or America. And the champion has used many in fighting his way to fame.

DICK LEE, who was for years the champion goal-kick, bears testimony to the superiority of the Sherrin ball.

The Footballers' Favorite.

The footballer has yet to be found who does not give the palm to the Sherrin ball as the best that can be kicked. The "Kangaroo" brand on each is the trade mark registered throughout the Commonwealth.

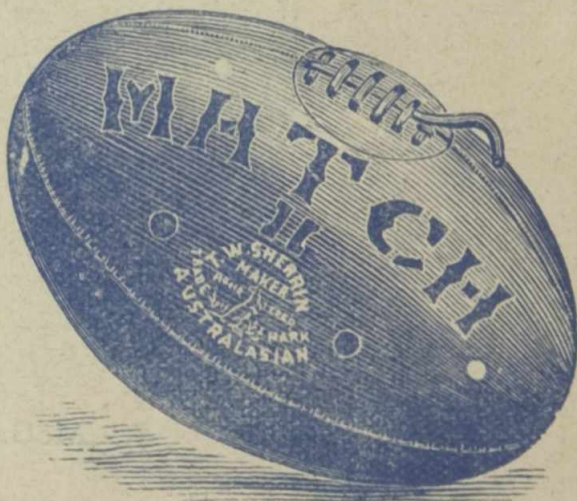

League clubs prefer the "Kangaroo" brand, and no club is considered complete without its supply of Sherrin's best.

THE AUSTRALASIAN FOOTBALL COUNCIL.

ever since the Interstate matches have been played have insisted on the use of the "Kangaroo" brand ball, and in the great carnival in Adelaide last year the pleasure of the players was increased by the knowledge that they were using balls from the Sherrin factory.

SHERRIN'S ATHLETIC GOODS

have won distinction at international and Interstate industrial exhibitions, among the awards being the Prize Medal and First Order of Merit in Adelaide, 1881; First Order of Merit, Melbourne, 1879-80; and the Diploma of Merit, Centennial Exhibition, 1888-89.

Obtainable at all the leading Sporting-goods Warehouses throughout Australia.

STOTT'S BUSINESS and CORRESPONDENCE COLLEGES

THE LARGEST, BEST ORGANISED and MOST SUCCESSFUL "AUSTRALIA."

The demand for our graduates is greater than the supply. Our students secure all the best positions because they are trained to efficiency and properly equipped for starting a business career. Business men have no time to train their assistants, hence the importance of a good training. We give you the preparation necessary to ensure success, and if you are unable to attend the College in person, we can give you just the same careful and individual instruction through our CORRESPONDENCE COLLEGE which brings a thorough education RIGHT TO YOUR HOME no matter where you live. Write for a free copy of Handbook V, and state in what you are interested. We can help you to succeed. Inquiry costs nothing. Don't put it off. DO IT NOW.

* * *

South Melbourne people were feeling very sore after the match, and when it became known that Myers, the steward, had reported George Bower, the soreness did not wear off. They had a slight hope that Bower would not be disqualified by the League, but that hope was dashed away on Wednesday evening, and they were more sore than ever. Myers said that Bower struck Baring. Bower denied that he had done so deliberately, but Baring expressed the opinion that the blow was intentional, and Bower goes out for four Saturdays.

* * *

The charge of intimidation laid by South Melbourne against A. Myers, the steward, in last Saturday's match will be investigated by the permit and umpire committee on Wednesday night.

* * *

In a week or two the old subject of an independent tribunal for the hearing of charges against players will be reintroduced to the League by Mr. E. P. Kennedy. I hear that it is certain to be agreed to this time by the necessary majority.

* * *

The League paid the railway fares to and from Sydney of the Victorian schoolboys who recently visited the northern capital under the management of Mr. J. Williams, of St. Kilda. The Sydney schoolboys are playing to-day on the Melbourne ground the return match. Their travelling expenses are being paid by the League, whose generosity towards the Sydneysiders has become a habit that is keenly appreciated.

* * *

South Melbourne are hoping to have the services of Ted Wade for the final. He has been playing at Bairnsdale in that old form which made him famous at South Melbourne. Mulally may be well enough to lend a hand in next Saturday's game.

* * *

Essendon see no reason to alter last week's team. The same team will do battle against Carlton to-day.

* * *

Carlton's 18 will not be known until this afternoon. A. McDonald is all right again, and will play, but who will stand down will not be decided until the last moment.
